Dear Parents,

Bath Philharmonia are offering 50 free tickets to their full symphony orchestra concert on Thursday 5th December at 7.30pm at The Bath Forum. This is a wonderful opportunity for your children to experience a live classical concert with you as a family.

ABOUT THE MUSIC

Mussorgsky's Night on a Bare Mountain

Imagine the sound of a group of witches having a wild and terrifying party with lots of dancing, but when the church bell chimes at 6am and the sun comes up, the witches vanish. It's one of the BBC Ten pieces.

Rachmaninov Piano Concerto No.3

17 year old pianist Lauren Zhang, the 2018 winner of BBC Young Musicians of the Year, will perform Rachmaninov's Third Piano Concerto; one of the most technically difficult and electrifying piano concertos ever written.

Anna Clyne, Night Ferry

Anna Clyne plunges us into mountainous seas, ferocious squalls and howling gales. Listen to an extract on the BBC Ten Pieces website.

These tickets will be given on a first come, first served basis. If it is something you are interested in attending then please sign up at the main office, stating how many tickets you would like.

We will let families know if you have tickets and you will be able to collect them from The Forum on the night of the concert by stating your school name and individual name. They recommend arriving before 7.15pm to allow time collect tickets before the show.

Regards
