Yesterday you planned your Big Write in terms of what genre you are going to write. You should have a good idea of what to include in your type of writing. E.g. Information texts would include sub-headings and technical vocabulary; a recipe would need adverbials, imperative verbs etc. This will vary depending on what you decide to write. I do want you to ensure you are using a variety of sentence structures, excellent vocabulary and a range of punctuation. Here are a few reminders. Relative clauses/parenthesis The virus - which is called COVID 19 - became a Pandemic. (non-fiction) My teacher (Mr Gunning) set daily work via email. (diary) The scientist, who had trained at Oxford University, made a remarkable discovery. (story) Subordinate clauses Despite the difficult situation, I soon settled into my new routine. (recount) Because the mixture will be very runny, add more flour. (recipe) The people queued like obedient soldiers whilst their families hid at home. (poem) Colons It was very clear that this virus had one goal: to kill! (non-fiction/story) At the end of the garden something moved in the shadows: it must be Boris! (story/or even a recount) I hope these help you to show off your wonderful writing. I will be expecting a photograph of your work on Friday.
